Plaintiff,

ORDER

On December 13, 2006, this Court entered final judgment against the Defendants in the amount $426,486.98 ("the Judgment"). In order to secure the Judgment pending appeal, the Plaintiff, moved to register the Judgment in Texas, California and Delaware pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1963. In response, the Defendants filed a Motion to Stay the execution of the Judgment, in which they asserted that they were willing to place $500,000.00 into an interest-bearing bank account with the United Commercial Bank in order to stay the Judgment.

After holding a hearing on the Parties' post-Judgment Motions on August 21, 2007 (at which the Defendants did not appear), this Court issued an Order on August 22, 2007 requiring the Defendants to place $500,000.00 into an interest-bearing bank account with the United Commercial Bank within fourteen days in order to stay the Judgment. The Court also delayed its ruling on Plaintiff's Motion to Register the Judgment to give the Defendants time to comply with the Order. To date, the Defendants have failed to comply with this Order or otherwise post a bond to stay the Judgment.

As a result of the Defendants' failure post a bond to stay the Judgment, the Plaintiff has requested that its Motion to Register the Judgment be allowed and that it otherwise be allowed to pursue the execution the Judgment. After holding a hearing on the issues on October 11, 2007 (at which the Defendant, Don Gallagher, attended via telephone), this Court finds that the Plaintiff has shown "good cause" under 28 U.S.C § 1963 to register the Judgment in other districts because the Defendants have refused to post a bond and lack sufficient property in this District, but appear to have property in other districts to satisfy the Judgment. In short, the Plaintiff is entitled to pursue the execution of the Judgment.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's Motion to Register the Judgment in Texas, California and Delaware is ALLOWED.

ENTERED as an Order of this Court this 24 day of October 2007.

So Ordered:

I hereby certify on 12-21-07 that the foregoing document is true and correct copy of the
